

THE FIRESIDE AND THE WORLD WIDE.

Helpful Hints and Friendly Talks.

(Conducted by Kate R. Sherwood.)

In house furnishing the first thing to consider is the length of your room. Even if one has a certain amount of credit it is small comfort to find that the room is too small for the furniture. For better or for ill, the room is what it is. The first thing to do is to see that the room is as comfortable as possible. If it is not, then the first thing to do is to see that the room is as comfortable as possible. If it is not, then the first thing to do is to see that the room is as comfortable as possible.

For every householder, but expect the term to apply to the wife equally with the husband. The term, however, as applied to a wife, should not be taken in a limited sense. It is not only help-work, but it is a help to the husband. It is not only a help to the husband, but it is a help to the family. It is not only a help to the family, but it is a help to the world.

When the capacity of your purse has been fully considered, then cast about to see what can be done with the money. It is the first duty of those who would go to housekeeping in a rational way, to see that the money is used in a rational way. It is not only a duty, but it is a pleasure. It is not only a pleasure, but it is a duty.

conditioned seat and easy rocking motion, was in itself more artistic than many modern inventions of the gilded girder-bread pan.

In bed-room furniture especially durability should be chiefly considered, as it is not very difficult to be satisfied with the bed-room. The bed-room is a place where one can find a good night's sleep without the risk of being projected on the floor in a moment of slumber. The bed-room is a place where one can find a good night's sleep without the risk of being projected on the floor in a moment of slumber.

Fifth, spend as little money as possible on the bed-room. The bed-room is a place where one can find a good night's sleep without the risk of being projected on the floor in a moment of slumber. But the prayers of the widow will sweeten your slumber.

And her lot will brighten if you buy a broom.

Chorus—Buy a broom, buy a broom.

You can brighten her lot if you buy a broom.

Oh, turn not in scorn from our humble utensils.

Nor blame us for calling in our simple tune.

But ask us, fond fathers and you, happy mothers.

And brush away sorrow by buying a broom.

Chorus—(In which the company all join)

Buy a broom, buy a broom.

Oh, give us this favor, and now buy a broom.

The brooms were then put up at auction, beginning with the captain's sister, who has her position at the right of the company. The auctioneer takes the broom, with the name of the lady, and strikes it off at the highest bidder. The party in charge of the broom sale, who is the purchaser, the owner of broom and price. For the first time, a broom was sold at a price of $1.00. The broom was sold at a price of $1.00. The broom was sold at a price of $1.00.

Replies to Our Circular Concerning a National Woman's Auxiliary

From the replies received to THE TRIBUNE'S circular of May 24th, asking for an expression of views as to the practicability of a national organization, auxiliary to the G. A. R., and suggestions as to the membership and manner of conducting Auxiliary organizations, we reproduce the following. The first is from the member of the western coast of Michigan. It will be observed from one point of view that all our correspondents agree—on the necessity of a national organization:

FAYORS SECRET SOCIETIES.
LITTON, MASON CO., MICH., June 1, 1933.

I am glad to hear that you are interested in the National Woman's Auxiliary. I am glad to hear that you are interested in the National Woman's Auxiliary. I am glad to hear that you are interested in the National Woman's Auxiliary.

THE SIBER.
Army soldier, sword of heroes,
Glowing in my hand, I hold thee close.
Burnest thou for shock of battle,
Longest thou for wreath immortal,
Plucked in danger-land?

ARMY SIBER, SWORD OF HEROES.
Sword shelt thou and I
And thou shalt be the first to lead
Like the hawk from sky.
Then the hawk thy vision keen,
Beak more sharp than mine.

ARMY SIBER, SWORD OF HEROES.
What if we go down
Dead the smoke and shock of battle,
Or the battle's fire?
Living, we shall wear the laurel—
Dead, the cyprus crown.

ARMY SIBER, SWORD OF HEROES.
Army soldier, sword of heroes,
Glowing in my hand, I hold thee close.
Burnest thou for shock of battle,
Longest thou for wreath immortal,
Plucked in danger-land?

ARMY SIBER, SWORD OF HEROES.
Sword shelt thou and I
And thou shalt be the first to lead
Like the hawk from sky.
Then the hawk thy vision keen,
Beak more sharp than mine.

At the National Encampment of the G. A. R. in June, 1931, at Indianapolis, in compliance with the request of the loyal women of Massachusetts, who were interested in the cause of the National Relief Corps, and a resolution was offered by Chaplain-Dr. Joseph P. Loring, and unanimously adopted, recommending a National Relief Corps, and authorizing them to use the above as their motto. The resolution was adopted, and the women of our land were not prepared to be left out of the organization, and hence we have waited, and while waiting have been using every effort to arouse an interest in the subject, and while waiting have been using every effort to arouse an interest in the subject.
